An American lady
said to her husband
"I never saw a worse dump than this is."
"no bell to ring for a maid"
"I stood outside my door waiting for one"
"The telephone system
is rotten"
"I don't know why they don't speak English."
The husband said
"The service is ~~also~~ not very good"
she said "I don't know why you ever
brought me here"
An army in the field
she called to the waiter
"Get someone who speaks English

meals take a long time

There seems to be different waiters each meal. They do each system. Jews who make a fuss do get the best service. It requires from 3/4 to 1 1/2 hours usually to get a meal in Moscow. Of all the places I have been this is about the worst. But it is all interesting.

For 2 months I have been eating supper in the Soviet dining. And now
am in my last supper.
Last class. Coming. Soland Oan alone. I have had U.S.A. It is more my to dread that feeling of depression. I am only for dinner. Soon this dining room will be filled with dancers and revellers. Now it is empty. Once I walked with the rest. Now I am empty too - lonesome.
The woods of the hall
are mine. Tomorrow morning I leave the Soviet Union - the Roland of former regime are morgled fair
